

THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE AACSB PRE-ACCREDITATION STANDARDS FOR INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES REGARDING FACULTY QUALIFICATIONS AND PARTICIPATION

*Krishna S. Dhir, Berry College, Mount Berry, GA 30149-5024, 706-346-5066, kdhir@berry.edu
G. Keong Leong, University of Nevada Las Vegas, Las Vegas, NV 89154-600, 702-895-3960, keong.leong@unlv.edu*

AACSB International standards include specifications for faculty qualifications and participation in the execution of mission-critical activities of collegiate schools of business. These standards have far reaching implications for the business education industry in all parts of the world. These demand that administrators, faculty members and students alike confront difficult and far reaching decisions. These implications will be presented, and session participants will be invited to participate in exploring alternatives available to all stakeholders.